

AMALAYA

[MALBEC BLEND]

2009 Wine Spectator | 89 points | "Smart Buy"

"A wide range of mint, damson plum, crushed blackberry and mesquite notes are offset by tangy acidity and a long, mineral-tinged finish. Silky. Malbec, Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah and Tannat. Drink now."
– James Molesworth

2009 Decanter | ★★★★★ Highly Recommended

TOP PICKS FROM NEW TALENT: "Intense, vibrant black fruit and spice. The creamy oak adds complexity to the finish."

2008 Wine Spectator | 88 points

"Ripe and bouncy, offering a fresh, almost tangy, mix of currant, fig, raisin and cherry laced with hints of mesquite and fruitcake. Stays fresh on the finish. Malbec, Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah and Tannat. Drink now. 4,200 cases imported."
– James Molesworth

2007 Wine Spectator | 91 points | 500 Great Buys

Dark, with a core of crushed currant and plum fruit laced with black tea, hoisin sauce and a snappy mineral streak. Ripe, but not overblown, with a racy finish that lets sweet earth and licorice snap notes add length."
– James Molesworth

2006 Wine Spectator | 90 points

Exotic, but pure, with delicious fig, currant paste, hoisin sauce and spiced hot chocolate notes. Long finish has nicely buried acidity, delivering lingering graphite and mineral hints. Malbec, Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Tannat and Bonarda. Drink now through 2009"
– James Molesworth