SMART BUYS

90

Bodega Colomé
Estate Malbec
Calchaqui Valley 2005

Very ripe, with exotic plum, fig and boysenberry fruit flavors that roll along round but deceptively focused tannins. The long, vibrant finish has a nice buried minerality to offset all the fruit.

– James Molesworth

BODEGA COLOMÉ ESTATE MALBEC

“One of the pleasures of serving good wines...at the Thanksgiving feast is the ability to trot out something different that will please almost everyone and also has a good story attached to it. This extraordinary malbec from Argentina is one of the best on both counts...This is an intense, lush red wine with powerful notes of black cherry, coffee, blackberry, and violets. There’s oak here, to be sure, but the fruit intensity and dimensionality is such that the oak is well-incorporated. The texture is dense, even velvety. This is a rich, liquorous, striking red wine that will accompany turkey beautifully, as well as take on all the trimmings.”
