The Hess Collection Appoints Ahna Jotter Hess Visitor Center Assistant Manager

Ahna Jotter

Napa, Calif. — Ahna Jotter has been selected for the newly created position of Hess Collection Visitor Center assistant manager, reporting to Visitor Center Manager Catherine Banister.

Jotter was promoted from her previous position as Floor Lead at The Hess Collection, where she has been part of the Visitor Center team since 2009.

Earlier, she worked as a floral designer and assistant manager at St. Helena Florist and floral designer at Garaventa's Florist in Napa. As a student at Napa Valley College, she is pursuing her degree in Botany. She is a graduate of Napa's Vintage High School.

In her new role she will help oversee the wine educators and guest hosts who provide a variety of consumer experiences at The Hess Collection Visitor Center, which incorporates the notable Hess Art Collection, as well as hospitality for trade guests visiting the winery.
