

Peter
LEHMANN
of the Barossa

Peter Lehmann Wines is one of Australia's most respected and innovative wineries, creating wines that delight wine lovers around the globe. Winemaking operations are carried out at a single site located near Tanunda, in the heart of the Barossa Valley, Australia's most famous wine region.

The Barossa is also Australia's richest viticultural and winemaking area. Comprising the historic Barossa Valley and Eden Valley, the Barossa is located in the ranges north of the city of Adelaide in the state of South Australia. The Barossa is known as one of the very best sites for Shiraz vineyards in the world. Barossa vignerons are the fifth and sixth generation custodians of these vines. Peter Lehmann has earned international acclaim for producing one of the very best Shiraz from the Barossa.

Peter Lehmann's personal Barossa story is part of Australian wine legend. A fifth generation born and bred Barossan, Peter Lehmann commenced his winemaking career in 1947. Today, Peter's son Doug continues the Lehmann traditions as managing director. Lehmann's unique personal relationship with over 150 Barossa grape growers gives Peter Lehmann Wines access to fruit from some of the best vineyard sites throughout the Barossa Valley.
