

WINERY PROFILE: SEQUANA

Sequana produces small quantities of Pinot Noir from grapes grown at premium coastal properties in Sonoma’s Green Valley of Russian River Valley and Monterey’s Santa Lucia Highlands. Winemaker James MacPhail has complete control over the creation of Sequana’s limited production wines – from farming to winemaking. Winegrowing respects the earth through sustainable practices; winemaking uses traditional techniques and minimal intervention.

GREEN VALLEY OF RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY

Vineyard	Acreage	2008 Production
Sundawg Ridge Vineyard	6.9 acres	1175 cases
Dutton Ranch	6.61 acres	1374 cases
Sequana Estate	11 acres under development	First harvest in 2013

SANTA LUCIA HIGHLANDS

Vineyard	Acreage	2008 Production
Sarmento Vineyard	30 acres	5093 cases