

WINE ENTHUSIAST

May 2011

Hess Allomi Napa Valley 2008 Petite Sirah

90 Points

(Highly Recommended)

“Could almost be a Cabernet Sauvignon, with ripe, concentrated blackberry, cassis and mocha-choca flavors. The tannins are strong, but very refined, in the Napa style, and the wine shows a good bit of acidity. A fine example of this variety and should age well for a very long time.”

-Steve Heimoff