SEQUANA VINEYARDS Santa Lucia Highlands

APPELLATION: The Santa Lucia Highlands overlook Monterey County's Salinas Valley and benefit from morning sun, afternoon sea breezes and moderate nighttime temperatures.

FLAVORS: A silky Pinot Noir with pretty floral and citrus aromas. Warm Asian spices and bright, lasting flavors of citrus, rose petal and cherry.

GRAPE CLONES: 667 and Pommard - Clone 667 provides good color and an elegant bouquet. Pommard lends spice and contributes to the wine's backbone.

PAIRS WITH: Earthy flavors - leafy greens, wild mushrooms, roasted duck breast, grilled salmon, wholegrain mustard and aged cheddar.

WINEMAKER: James MacPhail makes wine naturally, in small batches by hand. He believes in traditional, old world techniques and minimal intervention.
