BUYING GUIDE

91 Hess Collection 2004 Mountain Cuvée (Mount Veeder); $35. A lovely wine, soft, supple and complex. It shows ripe, forward flavors of blackberries, cassis, mushu plum sauce, chocolate and oaky smoke and vanilla, with a sweet, wild edge of lavender and violets. A true Cabernet blend, with a drop of Syrah, it has the tannic structure to improve for five years.

HESS COLLECTION MOUNT VEEDER~NAPA VALLEY MOUNTAIN CUVÉE 2004

100 BEST WINES of 2007

“Ineffably luscious and cool, this wine has mountain-grown fruit intensity without feeling pushed to extremes of ripeness or extract. It’s gentle and delicious, offering earthy spice and a hint of anise to heighten the saturation of fruit. Built from cabernet sauvignon, syrah, merlot, malbec and cabernet franc, this is the juice for braised lamb. 94 Pts.”

Cabernet lovers...”

“...2004 was an outstanding vintage for California cabernet sauvignons. They're well-balanced, show great fruit and concentrated flavors and have sufficient tannins to age well...favorites include the 2004 Hess Collection Mountain Cuvée, an extraordinary cabernet sauvignon that includes syrah, merlot, malbec and cabernet franc in the blend...”

“...with less emphasis on the syrah in the blend and more on the cabernet sauvignon...the changes have been positive and maximize Hess’ strongest hand—Mount Veeder Cabernet! The current vintage delivers aromas of ripe cassis, black cherry and mint, with smooth, polished tannins and a long, lingering finish. ...one of the outstanding values in Napa Valley red wine.”

"The 2004 Mount Veeder Cuvée has complex aromas of cassis, cedar, and mint. Black cherry on the palate is expressive of our mountain fruit, while finished tannins provide an underlying structure which will continue to evolve with proper cellaring. This wine complements an adventurous range of culinary tastes."
